Key WT Enrollment Figure Is Up; First Time In 5 Years

For the first time in five years the student enrollment figure which determines the level of state funding for West Texas State University is up.

Mrs. Lila Vars, assistant registrar, said the full-time student equivalent figure for the university increased for the spring term by more than 100 over the spring term of 1974. The last term for which WTSU recorded an increase in FTE was spring 1970, the final year in a long history of increasing enrollments at the university. It was in 1970 that student numbers began dropping at the university.

Dr. Lloyd I. Watkins, university president, reviewing the 12th class day report to be submitted to the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, was enthusiastic about the increase, which was also recorded in head-count enrollment figures.

Noting that it would be fallacious to term the rise in enrollment this spring indicative of a long-term trend, Watkins nevertheless said a breakdown of the enrollment figures indicates what could be a trend.

The university administration had predicted a 2.5 per cent decrease in student FTE enrollment for the school year which began last September. "This improves the situation significantly," Watkins said.

Twelfth class day figures indicate the university head-count enrollment rose by nearly 300 this spring over the spring of 1974. Total headcount for spring 1975 stands at 6316. That compares with the spring 1974 figure of 6074.

The increase is due primarily to an increase in graduate students at the university, the figures indicate. In spring 1974, the university graduate school enrollment stood at 1141 and in spring 1975 the graduate school enrollment stands at 1364. Freshman class enrollment for the spring is up only three students over the same period in 1974, when 1426 freshmen were counted.

A small increase in sophomore students is also recorded with the total in spring 1974 sitting at 1025 and the total this spring at 1083. Junior class enrollment likewise rose slightly from 1136 in 1974 to 1154 in spring 1975. The number of seniors declined for spring 1975, from 1346 recorded in 1974 to 1286 this spring.

An increase was also recorded in the number of students in the 22-30 age group. In spring 1974, the age group breakdown included 2389 in the under 21 age group; 2616 in the 22-30 age group; and 1069 in the 31 and over age group. This spring, the picture has altered and 2422 students are 21 or under; 2714 students are between 22 and 30; and 1180 students are over 31.

The full-time student equivalent rose this spring to 4928 from a spring 1974 total of 4811.

Virtually every school in the university recorded a jump in enrollment for the spring this year. Enrollment in the School of Fine Arts, in terms of semester credit hours, rose from 5108 in 1974 to 5725 in 1975. Teacher Education rose in terms of semester credit hours from 9079 to 9907. Nursing rose from 2017 to 3215 and Business Administration rose from 11,167 to 11,509.

"The thing that interests me is that the increase (for the term) is in women," Watkins said, noting that female enrollment rose from 2667 in spring 1974 to 3005 in spring 1975 while male enrollment declined by about 100 during the same period. "The increase is also in graduate hours."

"I think this reinforces the fact there is a substantial market, women are going further with their educations. Maybe there's feeling there are better opportunities now for women than there used to be, that the world of

Enrollments Continue To Rise

3 Schools Due Portable Classes

Portable classroom buildings will probably go up on three of four Canyon School District school campuses next fall to help cope with rapidly rising enrollments, Supt. Jerry Jack told board members Tuesday night.

In fact, an Administrative Services Unit is aiding the school administration in future planning for a whole raft of the portable buildings, as well as outside toilet facilities, for the Gene Howe Elementary School campus in South Amarillo.

Jacobs told board members he and principals of the four Canyon schools have come up with tentative enrollment projections for the fall and at least two portable classroom buildings will be needed at the high school and one on the junior high campus. No portable classrooms are anticipated for the Rex Reeves Elementary School site.

Jacobs said planning is beginning for the possible location of as many as six to 10 portable classrooms at the Gene Howe School, which has experienced rapid growth in the past few years as South Amarillo develops.

For the high school campus, Jacobs proposed moving an old barracks structure from the high school agriculture farm to the campus for remodeling into two classrooms. He projects an increase in students of about 50 for next fall.

One portable classroom for the junior high would help handle growth from a larger-than-usual sixth grade class, now in the elementary schools, which will shift to the seventh grade next year. The superintendent said projections indicate a bulk of new students will come into the Canyon school district in the fifth and sixth grade levels.

Tom Keeling told the board they believe there is "a fair chance" the Texas Commissioner of Education will overturn a decision made Nov. 14 by the Randall County Board of School Trustees to allow Amarillo School District to annex 165 acres of land now in the Canyon School District.

Keeling related the comments of J.C. Hinsley, a long-time school law expert from Austin who argued the Canyon case two weeks ago before the commissioner. Hinsley appealed the Canyon school district's decision to allow the annexation, and he'd said the chances of them reversing a decision is very slim. Keeling said, "We're hoping he's a little too conservative."

"I feel like," said Jacobs, "we have a fair chance of this decision being reversed."

The November county trustee decision to allow annexation has been attacked by the Canyon board as a precedent which could portend future disintegration of the Canyon school district border to the north. School district business manager Ronnie Wood explained during the Tuesday night session the new computerized accounting system now in full operation.

Wood said 27

costs are going up rapidly each school year for the district.

Wood said the funds paid out are going less to teacher salaries and instructional purposes than to transportation and maintenance and extra-

County Ends Year With Black Ink On Ledger

Randall County wound up 1974 with black ink at the bottom of its fiscal ledger sheet. It was their first balanced budget in at least three years.

A year-end report prepared by County Auditor Betty Hodges indicates unexpected income in various departments put the county out of the red. In some previous years, the county had spent more than was taken in by several thousand dollars.

Figures for the county's operation fund for 1974 show total receipts of $1,160,974 and total disbursements of $1,157,861. The figures show a net overage in receipts of about $3000.

County commissioners, in formulating their 1974 budget in August 1973 had anticipated going into the hole by as much as $35,000, figuring estimated receipts at $1,045,485 and estimated disbursements at $1,077,767.

With the addition of the receipts over disbursements for the year, the county ended 1974 with a fund balance in the operations fund of $180,030. The year had begun with a balance on hand of $176,917.

The receipts during the year which put the county over the deficit hump came primarily from repayment of a loan to the county general revenue sharing fund of about $80,500. The loan was repaid to the operations fund during the year, when federal revenue sharing funds came in to replace the loan.

Otherwise, commissioners miscalculated the tax funds which could be anticipated during the

City Man Directs Giant Triticale Sale

A Canyon man who heads a Colorado-based firm's triticale division announced Wednesday he received confirmation from Norway of an 8 million pound triticale grain deal. It will be the first export shipment of the man-made grain.

Ron Kershen, local manager for Life Resources, Inc., which headquarters in Colorado, is also triticale division manager for the firm and termed the Norway shipment "my baby."

Confirmation that the official Norwegian Grain Corporation had accepted a bid from the American company came this week after more than 1½ years of negotiations between Kershen and the company.

"This will be the first shipment ever to export triticale," Kershen said Wednesday. He said the 8 million pounds order would include just about all triticale produced on 200,000 acres of land in the United States.

Shipment will be made in April.

Kershen said he learned of the Norwegian interest in a possible purchase of triticale during a symposium more than a year ago and made initial contacts to work out a shipment of the grain. A first agreement fell through last fall when President Ford announced a moratorium on grain sales for export.

Late last fall, he said, the Norwegian firm asked again

When 'The Bus' Comes To Town

The State's In The Driver's Seat

It's as close as you'll come these days in the Texas Panhandle to a taste of the kind of medicine that 80 years ago was administered by the hangman.

The medicine's been watered down but retains the bitter aftertaste. In early days the public hangman provided visible and mighty incentive to walk the straight and narrow.

Today, no one notices as the efficient machinery of Texas justice metes out a dose on Canyon's courthouse square.

Steven M. Braboy, 17, and Larry E. Stephenson, 22, swallowed their first dose of the medicine Tuesday with dread and anxiety.

The kind of public revenge on criminals manifested in the 1880s by the hangman has given in the 1970s to quiet incarceration. Criminals go behind bars on the top floors of county buildings. Out of sight, out of mind.

The ends of criminal means is manifested publicly in the 1970s only sporadically — when The Bus comes to town.

The Bus is the kind of visage which makes even law-abiding citizens nervous.

A steel gray mobile prison. Armed to the teeth, the inside covered with chicken wire mesh.

With a roar, The Bus pulls in front of the Randall County courthouse sheriff's office. Three men, wearing steel gray uniforms and brandishing pump shotguns step from openings in the sides of the mobile justice-machine.

Inside, prisoners line up for a search and to change into frayed white shirts and pants.

Stephenson waits nervously, bounding his weight from foot to foot, clapping his hands together quietly in front, putting them in his pockets.

"How's it going?" "Well," he answers with a sick smile. His eyes turn to a window which fronts on the courthouse square and his glance falls and then rests on The Bus.

And, the husky shotgun-toting guard.

Braboy stepped into the gray world of the Trans Correctional System on 4 p.m. Tuesday. He'll stay there a maximum of 15 years, for what the state hopes are the ends of his criminal means.

Had Stephen Braboy thought about The Bus, when on Sept. 17, 1974, he walked into a Toot 'n Totum on 34th Street in Amarillo and pulled a gun on Robert B. Taylor, taking his money and running?

The slight 17-year-old pleaded guilty before a jury, which gave him a 15-

FROM THE CANYON RIM

Old people and folks on fixed income continue to be the most hapless victims of inflation.

Savings—once adequate—are being swept away by rising costs. I understand that some of these people are living on two meals a day.

I want to remind readers of this column that I predicted 14 years ago in this space that social security is the next thing to highway robbery.

It was introduced as insurance when it actually is only a tax. There is no social security fund on hand earning capital to pay off claims.

Social security money goes straight into the treasury and is frittered away just like any other tax money.

Social security is the mirage of old age and a bandit's hand in the pockets of the taxpayer.

Government irresponsibility is the major cause of inflation and this legal thievery and the sad thing about it is that it was figured out by "experts."

These experts may hold doctorates in economics but have they ever made any money?

My dad used to say that if a man tells you how to raise corn, ask him if he has any to sell. Nothing personal, but I have a hard time taking seriously any economist who has never met a payroll.

One reason I am looking with favor on Lloyd Bentsen's bid for the White House is that he has handled money and handled it well.

I think he understands real economics.

I don't understand why Amarillo has raised such a fuss over a few acres of land lying in the Canyon Independent School District and why Canyon has been so reluctant to give it to them.

I think the school board should hang onto every foot of ground that might develop commercially and industrially and get rid of as much northern real estate being developed for housing as possible.

Housing just won't provide enough local tax money to send the kids it shelters to school on the average.

There's another angle. If we keep a lot of residential area in Amarillo in the CISD then all the school board may come from South Amarillo in the not too distant future.

Then Canyon could become an Amarillo ward school.

I don't see why Amarillo wants it. Amarillo has further tarnished its claim to Panhandle leadership by taking CISD to court so to speak.

A letter writer in the Prairie this week spoofs Regent Chairman Cloyce K. Box by nominating him for the Millard Fillmore award for the month of January.

Our congratulations to those responsible for "Oliver." It was great.

News Brief

that a shipment be put together. Much of the grain for shipment is grown here in the Texas Panhandle, in Kansas and the Dakotas, Kershens said.

The initial grain shipment will be used by the Norwegian firm for experimental and testing purposes, he said, in an effort to test the saleability of the grain to that country's people and to see if the grain will fit into their feed grain import program.

The scientific breakthrough which led to the discovery of triticale came in the 1930s, when it was learned that hybrid grain could be fashioned into a new species of grain. But, it was not until the late 1960s that triticale, which reportedly contains a higher protein count than wheat, was put into the marketplace.

Kershens said the first triticale was harvested in summer of 1969.

Since that time, farmers have taken up the crop and now about 200,000 acres are planted in triticale each year through the Midwest. A new line featuring triticale

Kershens said he has been involved in triticale research and marketing for about five years.

and Jack Osborn, district director of the Farm Bureau in Pampa. Crain said the local residents were briefed on legislation pending before the Texas Legislature and to help map out a state-wide membership drive for the Texas Farm Bureau.

DA Staff Says Marsh Serving Board Legally

Randall County School Trustee Don Marsh is apparently serving legally as a representative of an Amarillo precinct in which, the residents did not vote in 1973.

Officials in the Randall County district attorney's office said this week Article 16 Section 17 of the Texas Constitution appears to confirm the legality of Marsh's office tenure. But, they said, there is still no word from the Texas Attorney General's office on how the April 5 election for Marsh's place on the county board should be filled.

Article 16 Section 17 of the constitution says: "All officers within this State shall continue to perform the duties of their offices until their successors shall be duly qualified."

Marsh, an Amarillo accountant, was originally appointed in 1969 to serve an Amarillo precinct on the county board, a precinct exclusively within the Amarillo Independent School District. Marsh ran successfully for re-election in 1970 and 1971. He did not run for re-election in 1973, however, apparently due to election from a precinct lying wholly within a school district outside the jurisdiction of the county school board. The Randall school board has jurisdiction over only the Canyon School District.

County Judge Woody Pond has said Marsh was appointed to serve in 1973 for another two-year term, but there is no record in either the minutes from the school board meeting or in the county clerk's office of his having taken another oath of office.

District attorney staff members feel, though, the constitutional article provides for Marsh to serve until a successor is named.

They are now awaiting an opinion from the Attorney General's office on how to proceed with the scheduled April 5 school board election. The picture is complicated somewhat because a new law on county school boards which went into effect in 1972 does not directly mention whether trustees may be elected from precincts lying wholly within a school district not under the county board's jurisdiction.

The DA staff also feels a 1973 El Paso Court case involving similar circumstances is favorable to the legality of Marsh's tenure.

The court of civil appeals held in the case, styled Toyah Independent School District v. Pecos-Bartow Consolidated Independent School District, that the qualifications of a county school board member could not be determined in the same action contesting a school district annexation.

And, the court also said that "in order to protect the public and individuals, an officer whose election or appointment might be illegal and invalid is still a de facto official."

Canyon Independent School District representatives, two weeks ago in Austin, questioned the legality of Marsh's tenure on the county board and thus the legality of a Nov. 14 decision by the county board to allow the Amarillo School District to annex 165 acres of land from the Canyon district.

The officials testified on an appeal hearing in Austin before the Texas Education Commissioner's staff representatives.

Marsh, along with two other county board members — Joe Turpin and J.D. Barker — voted for the detachment of the acreage from Canyon and annexation to Amarillo. Two other board members, R.B. Gist Jr. and Charles Purcell, voted against.

Advisor Is Planned For Women At WTSU

In an effort to make the transition from the home to the classroom easier for those who have been away from the college campus — or never been there in the first place — West Texas State University officials are planning establishment of a part-time counseling or advising position on campus.

Dr. Lloyd I. Watkins, university president, reviewing official spring enrollment figures which indicate the term increase is due to a return of women to campus, said he hopes to create an advisory slot to be filled by a person to act as general ombudsman for those returning to the classroom.

Envisioned as a part-time staff duty, the ombudsman would simply help women or senior citizens or anyone returning to classwork after a lengthy break make the transition mechanically.

Dr. Watkins said he has observed that for some women particularly there is a desire to return to college, but they are hesitant due to the sheer mechanics of obtaining transcripts, taking initial tests and enrolling.

"Many women find themselves with their children in school and a long day on their hands," he said. "And, for many of them, there is a vacuum in the middle of the day. I think this is a large, untapped market and we need to find ways to do more than we're now doing to encourage women who feel they could profit from the courses we have."

The ombudsman would be available to help obtain transcripts, advise on enrollment procedures and to be "somebody to whom they could come and talk."

Dr. Watkins said just a program was initiated at Drake University several years ago and it seemed to have a favorable impact on aiding women and others who have been away from college in that return.

The university is also seeking funds now to hire a minority student recruiting officer. The funds are available through federal sources.

New Hospital Opens; Room Rates At $47

Canyon's new Palo Duro Hospital opened its doors last weekend with a room rate of $47 which is likely to remain at that level and which is substantially lower than rates charged in Amarillo hospitals.

Administrator Ray Grimes, said his recommendation is that the room rates for the private rooms in the hospital remain at the $47 per day level. There are no semi-private rooms in the hospital.

The rate is from $10 to $20 below rates for similar facilities in Amarillo's three hospitals.

Directors of the South Randall County Hospital District must take formal action setting the room charges and related fees. No meeting date has yet been set as Grimes continues to superintend the continued moving of equipment from the old Neblett Hospital to the new structure.

After a weekend of moving, Grimes said Tuesday the move is substantially completed and late Tuesday afternoon the hospital had patients in 18 rooms, doctors had already delivered three babies and performed three or four surgeries.

About 20 patients had been in the new hospital on Monday. Only 12 patients made the move Friday afternoon as ambulances made a shuttle between old hospital and new to move patients.

"We're in full operation now," Grimes said Tuesday. "It's all go."

The administrator said the new facility has yet to feel the impact discussed in Amarillo news media recently of overflowing rooms in Amarillo's hospitals.

He said the new hospital has not been overwhelmed by Amarillo-based patients.

Doctors in the old Neblett Clinic have also made the transition to the new hospital and are accepting patients there now.

work isn't shut out to them."

Watkins indicated he believes the university's efforts to reach out into various Panhandle communities and to interest women and other non-traditional students in higher education are beginning to pay off.

Watkins was also interested in the jump in graduate enrollment, which rose from 1141 in spring 1974 to 1364 in spring 1975. This, he said, may be an indication of the success of the university's efforts to offer graduate courses in various cities in the area.

"I think this shows we must retain that trend toward being accessible and flexible to people in the region who can profit from what we offer," he said.

year by about $30,000. They had budgeted for ad valorem tax income of $501,279 but only $469,667 came in during the year, according to Mrs. Hodges' figures.

However, more receipts than budgeted for came in through other revenue funds, including the fees collected by the tax collector, fees collected through probate court, fees from county court, fees from the justices of the peace and fees from the county clerk.

Commissioners overspent their budget by about $80,000. They had budgeted to spend about $1,077,767 and ended up spending $1,157,861.

The jury operation fund, which includes jury fees and related costs for district and county courts, was overspent by about $2,000 in terms of what funds had been budgeted for the year. Total expenditure for the jury operations was $81,627 while the budget called for disbursements of $79,576.

The road and bridge operation fund, which includes items such as county commissioners salaries and car allowances, road crewmen and the county road superintendent salaries, fuel and oil and capital additions, was under the budget figure anticipated. Commissioners had budgeted $158,508 for the fund for the year and a total of $156,449 was spent.

The general operations fund, which includes such things as office supplies, books, and charity and public service donations, was overspent by about $61,000. Budgeted amount for the fund was $235,283 but a total of $297,038 was spent. The bulge came primarily due to a $78,000 expenditure for office supplies and printing, which had been budgeted to cost about $25,000.

The salary operation fund, budgeted to cost $510,841, came out at the close of the fiscal year under the budgeted figure by about $400. Total expenditure for the fund, which includes all salaries, social security and insurance, was $510,477.

The courthouse and jail operation fund ended the year spending about $19,000 more than budgeted in the '74 budget. Total expenditures in the fund, which includes disbursements for operation and maintenance of the courthouse and jail, capital additions, and related expenses, were $112,169 while the budget anticipated expenditures of $93,559.

Commissioners have projected for the 1975 fiscal year, which began Jan. 1, a budget which they project to be in the black again. They call for expenditures totalling $924,844, somewhat under the budget for 1974. Total receipts budgeted for the year are $1,130,450.

Amarilloan Heads Alumni

The West Texas State University Alumni Association board of directors, in its regular monthly meeting last week elected an Amarillo dry cleaning executive as the association's president for 1975.

Joe Y. Snead, owner of several One-Hour Martinizing cleaners and a drapery cleaning service, was elected by unanimous vote to lead the Alumni Association. Snead is a 1949 graduate of West Texas State and is involved in several civic projects in Amarillo. He is also the president of a national dry cleaners association and is a member or director of several other professional groups. Snead replaced Mrs. Thelma Evans of Tulsa.

Other officers elected by the board of directors include Dr. Lindsey Taylor of Amarillo as vice-president, Mrs. Billie Erwin of Canyon as first vice-president, Wix Price, Jr., of Borger as second vice-president, Bob Finney of Muleshoe as secretary and Melvin Jayroe of Hereford as treasurer.

"The diverse occupations and the age range of the new executive board should provide a great deal of experience and flexibility to the Association," executive director Lee Webb said. "I am looking forward to another great year for the organization and the University," Webb said.

Taylor is a 1959 graduate and an Amarillo orthodontist. Mrs. Erwin graduated in 1950 and is active in several Canyon civic organizations, and Price is a 1951 graduate and a Borger banker. Finney graduated in 1967 and is a banker in Muleshoe, and a 1957 graduate Melvin Jayroe is owner of a Hereford real estate and insurance firm.

In other business, the board of directors set the date for the Phoenix Club Banquet at which some member of the university's faculty or staff will receive the annual Phoenix Club Faculty Excellence Award of $1,000.00. The banquet and presentation will be April 22, 1975, on the University campus.

Traditionally, the Student Man of the Year has also been recognized at the affair. The banquet is free to Phoenix Club members.

The 24 members of the board of directors come from across the Panhandle. Board members presently serving the Association graduated in years ranging from 1929 to 1972. The next scheduled meeting of the board will be at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, Feb. 25, 1975.

West is one of 234 men and women throughout Texas who serve in this capacity to help meet the cost of the statewide Easter Seal program, which assisted 20,152 handicapped Texans in 1974.

The Texas Easter Seal Society and its statewide network of treatment centers and local volunteers spent $1,410,902, financed by the traditional Spring Easter Seal Appeal and Fall Membership Drive. Over 90 percent of all funds raised remain in Texas to support the growing needs of the disabled in the State.

Special emphasis is being given in the 1975 Easter Seal Appeal to the disabled citizen who may need assistance and not know where to obtain it. Contact West at First National in Canyon to receive the simple, self-mailing request service form. A determination of the extent and type of assistance needed, the most efficient means of obtaining that assistance, and arrangements for qualified treatment or other services will be made by the Texas Easter Seal Society.

Canyon city commissioners Monday night okayed a new 24-lot plat for the Hunsley Hills Addition.

The plat, presented by A. W. Lair, developer of the subdivision, lies to the south of the Canyon Creek Apartments.

In other business, commissioners voted to hire a consultant to design and plan equipment for the new library, which is to be located in Canyon's city hall facility. Jay Bannister, representative of the architectural firm which designed the new city hall, said cost for the consultant would be about $1500.

City officials have allocated tentatively a budget for equipping the library of about $20,000. Commissioners also approved a color layout for the interior of the city hall, now under construction at 16th Street and 3rd Avenue here.

City Soldier Ends Training

Epilepsy: Topic Of Workshop

After a morning of faculty meetings, textbook committee meetings and room inventory, the Canyon public school teachers met in the Canyon Junior High auditorium for a workshop presented by the High Plains Epilepsy Association.

The workshop began with a film entitled "Don't Look Away." The movie was produced by the Epilepsy Foundation of America and outlined what was being done to combat the disease of epilepsy and how the social stigma affects the epileptics.

Dr. Louis Finney, an Amarillo neurosurgeon, brought the keynote address. Dr. Finney described for the teachers the beginnings of epilepsy, the different kinds of the disease, the treatment and what happens to the epileptic during a seizure.

In a question and answer period following the address, Dr.

Finney, Marie Reed, president of the High Plains Epilepsy Association, and Betty Brown, director of the association, answered questions from the teachers concerning epilepsy.

The workshop ended with a panel discussion. Members of the panel were Dr. Mary Sheldon, sociology teacher at WTSU; Tom Jaggars, special counselor at Canyon Junior High; Mrs. Celis Forbis, a parent from Amarillo and Dave Du Vall, an Amarillo businessman.

County Pays First Funds For Annex

Randall County commissioners Monday paid their first installment on construction of their new South Amarillo courthouse annex.

They passed an order approving the release of $49,000 in certificates of obligation to pay for an initial phase of construction for the building.

A representative of the contracting firm of Panhandle Engineers & Constructors of Amarillo said construction is running about two weeks ahead of schedule at the site, which is a 7-acre tract at the Georgia Street-Canyon Expressway intersection. Total cost of the structure is to be about $600,000.

Commissioners put aside a request from Amarillo Kids, Inc., for a substantial increase in funding for that group, with County Judge Woody Pond vowing to review budget figures by next Monday's meeting. Kids, Inc., officials had asked the county to up its contribution by more than 100 per cent for the coming year.

Pond said it is unlikely the budget will be enough to cover that kind of increase.

Firemen Respond To 10 Jan. Calls

Canyon volunteer firemen answered 10 fire alarms during January—three in city buildings and six non-building fires within the city.

They fought one non-building fire in Randall County outside the city limits, but answered no building fire calls in the rural areas.

So far this fiscal year, which began last April 1, the firemen have answered 133 alarms. That figure is down 18 per cent from the same period in 1973-74, when they answered 164 alarms. The bulk of the fires so far this fiscal year have been within the city of Canyon.

In answering the 10 alarms during January, firemen spent 123 man-hours on fires.

Ending Tonight

The final service of the David Wilkerson Crusade here will be held tonight, Feb. 6, at 7:30 p.m. in the West Texas State University Fieldhouse.

Chamber Delays Budget Approval

Directors of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce postponed approval of their 1975 budget Monday night, pending an active membership solicitation campaign.

They also discussed the possibility of a city-wide beautification effort, but postponed action on that topic until they could time the campaign with state-wide contests stressing clean-up.

Gene Howe Variety Show Entertains Large Crowd

The second annual variety show was staged at Gene Howe Elementary School in late January with approximately 500 people attending the performance as 107 students were involved in the variety program.

Each grade level at the school was represented on the program which included such performances as guitar ensembles, brass quartets, tap dances, piano solos, cornet solo, a marching group, hand jive performance, violin solo, pili stick presentations, gymnastics, various boy's quartets, kindergarten singers, a baton routine and drum solo.

The variety show was concluded with a presentation by several members of the Gene Howe Parent-Teacher Association entitled "School's Out At Tater Holler."

A highlight of the program was an original song which had been written especially for the school's six sets of twins and sung on the program by the twins including: Ranelle and Michelle Walker, Terry and Jerry Gervasi, Melinda and Melissa Davis, Melissa and Wendy Gresham, Debbie and Dusty Dove and Tammy and Tracy Weatherly.

Other highlights of the program were the Campbells, Darla and Kelli, performing with Mrs. Campbell; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gibson performing with April and Gay; and sister performances by Mary Mack and Stacy Howard with accompaniment by Mrs. Howard and a sister performance by Gaylene and Jeina Byrom.

It's fun to get out into brisk winter weather and work up an appetite with skating, skiing and all kinds of outdoor sports. But when that hungry crowd comes piling into the house to warm up and refuel, what are you going to serve? Here's a winter snack buffet that's sure to please with steaming hot chocolate and lots of tasty snacks fresh from the oven.

Best of all, the whole menu is easy on the hostess. Have a tray of Cheese Snacks made in advance, refrigerated and ready for the oven. For these you need buttered slices of party rye bread or hot-dog rolls, plus apple rings, Vienna sausages, crisp bacon strips and Cheddar and Gouda cheese. While they're heating, put out bowls of popcorn, apples, and plates of doughnuts.

Serve some regular powdered sugar and/or glazed doughnuts, warmed for extra appeal. For a special treat, try some open-faced doughnut tricks. Surprise the crowd with popcorn tossed and mixed with melted butter, Parmesan cheese, garlic salt or chili powder. All are welcome with mugs of hot chocolate milk.

Cheese Snacks:

On buttered party rye bread slices place an unpeeled apple ring (brush apple with lemon juice if preparing ahead); top with a Vienna sausage cut in half and a wedge of Gouda cheese; or

David Wilkerson, author of the best seller, THE CROSS AND THE SWITCHBLADE, will address a gathering of teen-agers and parents tonight, February 6, at 7:30 p.m. in the West Texas State University Fieldhouse located at 23rd Street and 2nd Avenue in Canyon, Texas.

Sponsored locally by a number of Canyon-Amarillo churches, the crusade is open to the public at no charge.

Twelve years ago, David Wilkerson went to New York City on a one-man mission — to change the lives of teenage gang members. Nicky Cruz, leader of the suicide Mau-Mau gang, rewarded the minister with a slap and a spit and a "... go to hell!" Today, Nicky Cruz, is an ordained minister working with youngsters himself in an ever expanding ministry to gangs, narcotic addicts, prostitutes, hippies and goodniks.

Eight years ago, Mr. Wilkerson was the first to expose the fact that glue sniffing was a fad among urban junior high schoolers, and he began to warn against its growing threat. Few major youth leaders are as realistic as Mr. Wilkerson when he counsels youth from the platform about sex, hard narcotics, and alcohol. Mr. Wilkerson states, "I am often accused of over-simplifying the problem and the solution because I preach a simple message of faith in Jesus Christ." "But," he says, "no one can deny it works."

Mr. Wilkerson is now challenging the problem and the solution because I preach a simple message of faith in Jesus Christ.

Chain Saw Injures Man

The owner of one of Canyon's newest businesses, Francis Miles, was injured about 5:45 p.m. Tuesday when a chain saw he was using to cut wood accidentally slit his neck.

Miles remained in satisfactory condition Wednesday morning at Palo Duro Hospital here.

Thad Cole, who works with Miles at Miles Pallet Co. here, told Canyon Policeman Joe Fiola Miles was cutting wood at the business site when the chain saw he was using caught in the wood and flew back to slice into Miles' neck.

Cole drove Miles to the old Neblett Hospital emergency room, but found the hospital out of business. The car had been followed to the hospital by Officer Fiola who noticed the vehicle travelling at a high rate of speed along 5th Avenue.

Fiola took Miles to the new hospital facility for treatment.

Art Chairman Resigns

Dr. Emilio Caballero, Chairman of the Art Department at West Texas State University, will resign his chairmanship, returning to full-time teaching in the Art Department effective Sept. 1, 1975, President Watkins has announced.

In making the announcement, Dr. Watkins stated further, "After many years as chairman of the Art Department, Dr. Caballero has asked to be relieved of his administrative burdens in order that he may return to full-time teaching and painting. We are proud of this outstanding artist and teacher, and all of us are deeply indebted to him for the fine work he has accomplished as chairman of the Art Department. I understand his desire, however, and will accede to his wishes. He will be missed as chairman."

In view of Dr. Caballero's often stated preference for being designated teacher and artist, his transition back to these roles is fitting. Dr. Caballero is presently completing his twentieth year

Do you know

Jerry D. Becknell?

Maybe you should. It couldn't hurt.

He's the professional campus representative for the Pierce College Program. The most imaginative and creative insurance program ever offered to college upper-classmen and recent graduates.

We call it the "Wings to your Future" program. For good reasons. Like any good insurance program, it offers protection and security for people you love in case you die. But more important, it offers security, savings, and protection to you and the people you love while you're alive.

And living's the big number. You know it. We know it. And he's got a program that proves it. That's why he's worth knowing.

The West Texas Gas Supply

You hear a great deal about the competition for the natural gas in West Texas these days. It is rightfully a matter of interest and concern to every citizen of this area. It has some serious implications.

Natural gas has been an important factor in building West Texas and will continue to be. Most of the businesses and industries in our area depend directly or indirectly on a continuing supply of natural gas. A lot of people's jobs depend on it. So, we must see that they have it.

We will have to pay more for it than in the past — the competition for gas has never been so fierce. But by working together, and without outside interference, we'll have the gas energy we need today and in the future. Gas will still be your best energy buy.

FOG! WHAT IS fog? Well, that's exactly what we have been having morning, noon, and night for almost a week now. Of course, we have had some rain fall and that's just great. We certainly do need all the moisture we can get now. Oh yes, ole man groundhog missed seeing his shadow around here this year, so if that's a true indication, spring will be coming up soon.

THE KIDS WERE out of school Monday. Seems it was a pretty rough day for most of them, as there wasn't much to do. It was too wet for the trampoline and for outdoor basketball. Better luck next holiday, Kids.

HAVE YOU EVER seen someone so excited, that they just know everything will go wrong. Well, that was Diana Hoffman last Friday morning as she nervously awaited the landing of the plane that brought her mother, Loiese Cantrell, from

This was a visit Diana, Jon, Marty and Christy had been waiting and hoping for ever since they moved here three years ago. Loiese spent almost six days with the Hoffmans and everyone seemed to enjoy every minute of her visit.
Carlos (Diana's father) was unable to make this visit, but hopefully he and Loiese will be able to come for a visit, in the near future.

PEARL WEST SAID she still hasn't gotten to hold that new grandson but they have definitely decided to keep him. The grandson was born last week and now we have the details. He arrived January 27th, weighed 6 lbs. and 12 oz. and was 20 inches long. They named him Shawn Kevin West. Both mother and baby are doing fine and they went home on Saturday.

A HAPPY BIRTHDAY goes to Dusty West, who became a teenager on Sunday, February 2nd. He had planned a party, but became ill and had to postpone it.
TOD, DEANN AND myself went to Lubbock Friday after school and spent the weekend. We visited my mother, Mrs. E. M. Weaver, also Mr. and Mrs. V. M. McKee, my inlaws. It was a wet and dreary weekend, but we enjoyed our visit.
When DeAnn got up Saturday morning, she came to my room, and I asked her if she had slept well to which she answered, "I sure did, I didn't have a night and I stayed under the covers, you going to put that in the paper?" I felt I couldn't let this pass, she is four years old.

Tod spent Saturday night with a friend, Chuck Brown, who lives in the country. They had a real good time.
THE BOY SCOUTS have changed their meeting nights from Monday to Tuesdays. They meet at the recreation building from 7:30 to 9:00. They had four new members join last week and now have three patrols.
They are in need of a Scout Master, so if any of you guys would be interested, please come to the next meeting. We have several guys who are taking turns as acting Scout Master, but due to their jobs are unable to take it full time.
and want this Scout program here at Siesta.
The Scouts had planned a can pickup for last Saturday morning, but had to be postponed due to the weather.
THE CUB SCOUTS had their first pack meeting on January 28th. This is Pack 77, Den I.
Jess Adams from the Scout office came out and had charge of this meeting. The meeting opened with the flag ceremony, followed by games that involved both scouts and their parents.
After this they sang some songs and then had the candlelight induction ceremony for the Bobcat awards. Five boys received Bobcat awards. Other awards were one-wolf, one-cub, and two-one year service.

The closing ceremony consisted of the Scout Promise and the Living Circle. Refreshments were then served and we had a very good turn out for this Pack meeting.
The nine Cub Scout members are: Garrod Ashford, Richard McCarter, Daryl Robertson, Robert Lett, Mark Shaffer, Monty Prichett, Kurt Smith, Jimmy Scott and Randy Jones.
Barbara Lett is Den Mother and her assistant is Linda Shaffer. They are also looking for a Cub Master, so if any one is interested please come to the next meeting or contact Mrs. Lett, Mrs. Shaffer or myself.
The cub scouts meet on Thursday afternoons at 4:00 in the recreation building. The cubs are working on their Flag achievement now and Randy Jones is making a ceremonial Board for the candle services.
PATRICK SHAFFER IS playing Kids, Inc. basketball at Gene Howe on the 5th grade team. On the report I got, they have played five games to date and have won two while losing three.
Good luck on next weekends games. Win both of them.
THE 7TH GRADE purple boys basketball team played Monday evening at 5:00. Marty Hoffman plays on this team. He didn't give me a score after the game though.
HAPPY ANNIVERSARY TO James and Sharon Jones, who celebrated their 13th year on February 4th. I heard James took Sharon out to eat.
GUESS IT IS time to sign off for this week. I'll be back next time with all the latest from Siesta. Keep on reading.
Thought for this week, "A pound of friendship is much better than a pound of butter. It will spread thinner, last much longer and in most instances never have to be refrigerated."
See ya.

SELECTING RECIPES in her kitchen at 1718 4th Avenue is Mrs. Rae Walters who will soon be "laying down her apron" after 30 years as the cook for Canyon's various civic clubs.

Community's Cook To Lay Down Apron Soon

The "cook" at Canyon Community Center, Mrs. Rae Walters, is planning to "retire from the kitchen" in late February after being the cook there for a number of years.

"I first started cooking for the men's club (Lions and Rotary) back in the early 40's when they were meeting weekly at the churches in town," recalls Mrs. Walters. At that time, she noted, six committees including six women cooked for the men's clubs on an alternating basis of six weeks.

"I took over the cooking as an individual concessionaire in 1944," she related. Over the years Mrs. Walters has employed her own assistant helpers and recalls the early days when college students walked to the church to help with the serving of meals.

As the concessionaire, Mrs. Walters stated "I hired my own helpers, purchased the food and paid my own bills—but as a job it was worthwhile and a lot of fun over this past 30 years."

Biscuits, homemade yeast rolls, cinnamon rolls and other bread specialties were always a feature of Mrs. Walters' menus. She said that "bread was baked for each club's meeting—and lightbread was never purchased—with the exception of once when the Lions' president at the time asked that she serve light bread to keep the guys from having fun pitching the biscuits."

"I served lightbread that one time, and you know they wadded it and threw it anyway," she laughed in remembering.

"If I didn't fix cinnamon rolls for awhile someone would always ask 'when we gonna get some more cinnamon rolls' and then I always followed up their requests by baking some," she stated.

Meals for the Lions, Rotary and later the Kiwanis Club of Canyon are served family style at luncheon settings with eight to a table. In addition, Mrs. Walters has served breakfasts, luncheons and dinners for numerous other groups using the Canyon Community Center (formerly the American Legion Building) over a 30 year period.

"One time," recalled Mrs. Walters, "S.H. Condon (now deceased) changed the regular luncheon time for the Rotary Club and notified all of the membership but never told the cook—so they were all there, and dinner was just late."

"And another time, Dr. James P. Cornette (former president of West Texas State University) invited all of the new teachers from the college to attend the luncheon continued to live at Happy until moving to Canyon in 1935 when her son, Kenneth (now deceased) came here to attend college.

Her daughter, Fern Kieser, and younger son, Richard, were both graduated from Canyon High School. Mrs. Kieser, who operates an antique shop in Amarillo, followed high school with studies at West Texas State University and has three children, Steve, Scott and Marcey living near San Francisco, California. Mrs. Walters' son, Richard, studied at Wayland Baptist College and has a daughter, Leigh Ann Walters, who resides with her mother at Massasauga, Ontario, Canada. Richard lives in Canyon and has assisted his mother at the civic luncheons for several months this past year.

GARY BARRETT, a West Texas State University student from Happy, was presented with boots as the result of a ways and means project sponsored by Chi Upsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority recently. The presentation at West Texas Western Store in Canyon included Sandy Martin, left, extension officer of the chapter and Marion Thompson, right, chapter treasurer and chairman of ways and means committee.

Toilet Repair Points February Topic Of HD Clubs

"Toilet Repair and Adjustments" will be the subject of the February program for home demonstration clubwomen throughout Randall County as the County Extension Agent, Becky Hall, presents a similar program for each of the groups at their meetings.

In discussing "toilet repairs,"

Mrs. Hall notes that "Water closets or toilets vary somewhat in design, but are enough alike that the same general repair information applies to most types."

She stressed that homemakers and those considering do-it-yourself toilet repair should observe what happens in the flushing action to determine what repairs are needed. Toilet parts most often requiring repair are the flush valve, intake valve or the float ball and inexpensive replacements for these parts are readily available for most kinds of toilets.

"The replacements can be installed quickly and easily with or without the aid of a professional plumber," noted Mrs. Hall. "Many times all you need for the job are an adjustable wrench, pliers, a screwdriver and the replacement parts."

"Most homemakers can learn to recognize and repair the six most troublesome toilet repair problems. Before starting any repairs, shut off the water supply valve located under the water tank—if the toilet does not have a shutoff valve simply flush the toilet to empty the tank and gently prop a stick under the float arm inside.

Some of the common troublesome toilet problems to be discussed by Mrs. Hall include: the tank that fills but water still runs; the water runs but the tank doesn't fill; inadequate flushing action; leaks under the toilet tank; and the water is slow in filling the tank.

Mrs. Hall will be presenting the program for local home demonstration clubwomen on the following schedule and any interested homemaker is invited to attend any of these special meetings in their area.

Valentine Banquet Set

By MARY NEAL HENRY
TEXAS COWBELLES ARE now represented on the National Executive Committee, the governing body of American National CowBelles. We were elected January 28 in Las Vegas at the twenty-fourth annual Membership meeting of the American National CowBelles, Inc. Forty affiliates comprise ANCB. These include 37 states, Canada, and two breed auxiliaries. Other states represented on the Executive committee are Louisiana, Utah, Ohio, Arizona, Florida, Montana, Iowa, Oklahoma and Washington. States may have only one executive who serves for two years, unless one is then elected a Vice President.

Frances Owen, this year's Texas CowBelle president, was elected to the National nominating committee.

Texas won First Place again this year in the National Membership Contest. Plaques were presented to myself as State President of 1974 and to Ellen Arent as State Membership chairman.

ANCB voted to back the cattlemen in the Beef Development Task Force, a program designed to collect money for advertising of beef. This really is a good plan. A special board will be formed to handle this money and advertising.

This was our first trip to Las Vegas and that place really is different. Mostly, we just walked around and looked. There is plenty of lights—no hint of an energy shortage.

Naomi (Lancaster) Hayhurst picked us up Thursday evening and took us to dinner and sight seeing. She even took us to the top of the landmark so that we could view all of Las Vegas in the evening. (The landmark is a structure similar to the tower built in San Antonio during the HemisFair.) Naomi is the head nurse of the Intensive Care Unit for infants in one of the Las Vegas hospitals. One of the surprising things to me, was that Las Vegas is a city with many common people and every day problems, etc. I think I had pictured it as the Strip and a slum area. But it is a city of several thousand people—in fact, 600,000 population in the county.

BEEF GIFT CERTIFICATES have already proved to be a successful project and will become more so with advertising. First National Bank of Canyon sold 33 for a total of $511 and West Texas State Bank sold $25 worth before Christmas.

Happy State Bank sold over $500 worth of Beef Certificates before Christmas also. Hereford and Terra Cotta CowBelle areas both sold in excess of $5000 each on beef certificates. Both had an extensive advertising campaign, including advertising fliers in bank statements. The next campaign will probably be Father's Day.

HAPPY COWBELLES WILL hold their annual Valentine Party on Saturday evening, February 8, 1975, in the school cafeteria at 7:30 p.m. Refreshments will be served. CowBelles bring your husbands or beaus and enjoy the evening.

THE FIRST BAPTIST Church Valentine Banquet will be held on February 12th in Fellowship Hall. Make reservations for this evening also.

SHAWN WALTERS WAS installed as Worthy Advisor of Rainbow Assembly #202 in Happy last Saturday evening. She presented her term at the close of the service. Lisa Payne, Connie Richardson and Mrs. Denise Hickman sang her song, "Friendship" accompanied by Cathy Parker at the piano.

Shawn introduced her parents, Betty and Eddie Walters and her grandmothers, Polly Walters and Sissy Driskill. She had Judy and Roy Thompson and their Roy Dee and JoBeth excoerted to the West and introduced them and then dedicated her term as Worthy Advisor to them because of their friendship. She thanked the Mother Advisors and Advisory Board and Grand Cross for their help and the Grand Cross for refreshments. She also thanked Gerry Holland and Irene Hardaway for their help in decoration and Joyce Ralback for having made her plaque.

Pale pink and hot pink feather flowers and magnolia leaves in an antique crystal vase stood in the East in front of the Worthy Advisor's station. Miniature "Aladdin Lamp" candle holders decorated with pink doves and pink roses decorated each color station. Pink roses adorned the secretary's desk. The serving table was covered with a pink cloth over white and centered with an arrangement of pink silk roses. Lime green sherbet punch and cookies were served to about a hundred members and guests. Pink rose bud mints and green mint leaves complimented the refreshments.

Linda Ralback and Faye Parker received their Past

Worthy Advisor's pin and Past Mother Advisor's pin. Presentations were made by Cathy Parker and Evelyn Dowd. Linda Ralback was also presented a program at the opening of the meeting on her "return to the ranks" from Worthy Advisor. A group of girls sang her a special song.

MRS. MARTHA MARIE Whitfield, Supreme Faith and Supreme Inspector in Texas, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, visited the Happy Rainbow Assembly on Monday evening, their first meeting after installation.

Mrs. Cortez Dowlen, Grand Visitor, accompanied Mrs. Whitfield, a dinner preceded the business meeting. Mrs. Whitfield spoke briefly to the assembly. In her talk, she told the girls that sometime she knew when she was present that the Mother Advisor breathed and sometime she didn't. Mrs. Whitfield has a keen sense of humor.

Mrs. Georgine Tiley of Canyon, Past Grand Worthy Advisor, was another special guest. Other past Grand Officers included Willa Jane McManigal, Past Grand Chairty, Willa Elliott, Past Grand Outer Observer of the Grand Assembly of Arizona, Pat Hargrave and Barbara Andrews, Past Grand Representatives. TWO NEW HAPPENINGS at our home lately...a nine year old that cooks and a puppy dog that sings. Since Angelique has begun cooking in 4-H, she bakes brownies regularly, such as twice last Saturday and only once on Sunday.

Angelique recently learned that when she plays her tonnette while the puppy is in the house, he will whine and howl and howl. At first, she got so tickled that she wouldn't be able to play past the first howl, but now she has discovered that as long as she plays, Johnson will howl, not in harmony, but very funny!

See Ya! Mary Neal

Two and a half years ago, a Canyon High School student became interested in one of man's oldest dreams, flying.

Greg Dodson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Dodson of Amarillo, at the age of 17 holds a private pilot license with instrument and multiengine ratings.

Dodson attributes his Explorer Scout training at Post 177 in Amarillo as the spark that kindled his interest in flying, which began when he was 15.

Since that interest began, Dodson has had very little time for anything other than school and flying.

Now a senior at Canyon High School, Dodson goes to school for half of the day and works the other half at Aircraftman, an aircraft servicing company at Amarillo Air Terminal. The half-day school and half-day work is a program of the vocational Education program at CHS.

Dodson has managed to squeeze in enough time during the last two years to work and completely finance himself through flight training and instruction. He is presently clocking in a 48-hour week at Aircraftman.

On Feb. 3, the young pilot celebrated his 18th birthday. This was the only requirement needed to apply for a commercial pilot license. Dodson has exceeded the required flying time for a commercial license three times over. The required number of hours for the advanced license is 250. Dodson has over 750 hours recorded. All that is left for Dodson to become commercially licensed is a flight test and a written test.

After high school, Dodson plans to either become an instructor, air mail carrier, or possibly fly for a corporation. His plans also include college. "I plan to get a job and work college around it," Dodson said. "Flying is my
